Are you a homebased reseller reliant on new customers to grow your business? A crafter or artist without a retail space? A local homebased business looking for a new way to market?

If you answered yes to any of those questions, then the St. John's Bazaar might be the opportunity you have been looking for.

Held every other Friday from mid-May to September, you'll be able to reach hundreds of local consumers! Situated at St. John's Church & Arts Centre, we offer both indoor and outdoor spaces right across the street from one of Lac du Bonnet's busiest retail locations.

The Vendor Agrees:

I understand that my booth must be open and staffed during all hours of the St. John's Bazaar on the days I have chosen between the hours of 2:00 PM and 6:00 PM. I understand that St. John's Heritage Church & Arts Centre, The Lac du Bonnet & District Historical Society, staff, members, and volunteers are not responsible for my merchandise. I understand that there is no refund policy. I accept liability for any loss by damage, fire, theft, or any other causes either during transportation to and from the event or during the event. Driving vehicles on the site after initial set-up is prohibited. I acknowledge the vendors will operate rain or shine.

I have read, understood, and agree to comply with the participation agreement as set out by St. John's Bazaar.
